

BULGARIANS FIGHTING SERBIANS AND GREEKS; MAKE WIDE ATTACK

Belgrade Excited Over Hostile
Move Along Macedonian Line
—Clash at Salonica.

BELGRADE, Serbia, June 29.—The Bulgarians to-day opened an attack on the Serbian troops along the whole line in Macedonia, according to despatches from the Serbian headquarters. The publication of the news created intense excitement in the Serbian capital.

DOPLA, Bulgaria, June 30.—More fighting occurred to-day between the Greek and Bulgarian troops some distance to the east of Salonica. According to the Bulgarian account, the Greek soldiers tried to cut the Bulgarian communications along the railroad from Serres to Drama, but were driven off by the Bulgarians after they had burned a village.

RESKOP, June 30.—Heavy fighting is in progress in Macedonia according to despatches received here. Hostilities opened between the Serbians and Bulgarians in the neighborhood of Lepid and between the Greeks and Bulgarians in the vicinity of Drama.

HELD AS WHITE-SLAVER.

Belkand Arraigned for Alleged Offense Nearly Two Years Ago.

Abraham Belkand, twenty-one years old, of No. 271 William street, Brooklyn, was arraigned in the Tombs Court before Magistrate McQuade this morning as a white slave trader and held in $5,000 bail for examination to-morrow morning.

The police have been looking for Belkand since Oct. 23, 1911, on a warrant sworn to by Annie Jacobs, a girl of seventeen. She charges that about a week before that date Belkand took her to a house in Margit street, this city, and locked her in a room on the top floor. He opened the door, she says, only when he brought men visitors and her maid. She succeeded in making her escape and, going to Magistrate Barlow, told him the story upon which the warrant for Belkand was issued. The police say that other charges of a similar nature will be made against the prisoner.
